Extract from our General Conditions of Sale including title retention clause: The goods remain the property of the seller until full payment of its price (88.3358 Act of 5/12/80), even in the event of administration or other insolvency. The absence of a written complaint within eight calendar days of the first delivery of goods prohibits the originator and recipient of the goods or their constituents, to claim any defect or failure in conformity of the goods delivered or challenge the delivery. In the absence of any complaint within eight calendar days from delivery date, it is irrefutably understood that the recipient is liable for any possible defects and non-conformity of the goods. Our invoices are payable in Lille, our bills are no exception to this jurisdiction clause. Lille Commercial Court has exclusive jurisdiction on disputes relating to either our sales or our purchases and notwithstanding any other provision, however made.
